Emergency contact

1. Voluntary participation

I am participating voluntarily and understand that Manali Strays may assign, change, limit or end my volunteer duties according to shelter needs, safety and animal welfare.

2. Rabies vaccination

I understand that pre-exposure rabies vaccination is compulsory before I begin volunteering. I will arrange vaccination with a qualified medical professional and follow the recommended schedule.

3. Safety and instructions

I will follow staff instructions, use safety equipment when directed and immediately report bites, scratches, injuries, illness, hazards or unsafe behaviour.

4. Animal handling

I will not enter restricted areas, handle animals, administer medication, perform treatment, feed animals or move animals without staff permission. I understand that animals may behave unpredictably.

5. Respectful conduct

I will treat animals, staff, visitors and other volunteers respectfully. Harassment, discrimination, violence, intoxication, theft and deliberate damage are not permitted.

6. Confidentiality and media

I will not publish private personal, medical, rescue-case or internal shelter information. I will obtain approval before posting identifiable case details or restricted-area images.

7. Personal belongings and expenses

Lunch is provided on scheduled volunteer days. Breakfast, dinner and accommodation are not provided. Manali Strays does not provide medical insurance or accidental insurance. I am responsible for my travel, stay, personal belongings, insurance and medical costs.

8. Health information

I will disclose relevant health conditions or limitations that may affect safe participation and will not attend when suffering from a contagious illness.

9. Personal data

I consent to Manali Strays using my application information and identity document only for verification, safety and volunteer administration. Access will be restricted to authorised personnel and data will be retained only for the stated period unless the law requires otherwise.

10. Acknowledgement

I have read this agreement, understand the nature of shelter volunteering, had an opportunity to ask questions and agree to comply with these terms.
